Located in a highly sought-after, central area of Sarasota, this private neighborhood is nestled amongst mature vegetation and beautiful oak trees, creating a serene and peaceful atmosphere. This residence captures the essence of the Sarasota School of Architecture, designed by Tim Seibert, one of the original architects of this iconic movement. Surrounded on two sides by a 72-acre nature preserve, the community offers tranquility and convenience just minutes from downtown and the world class beaches of Siesta Key. This stunning home boasts an open, versatile layout, perfect for entertaining and everyday living. As you step into the foyer, you're greeted by an abundance of natural light, creating a welcoming atmosphere that flows through the kitchen, living and dining areas. A series of French doors open to a spacious Florida room with private views of the preserve. Throughout the property, you'll find unique architectural details, from custom built-ins and a cozy fireplace in the living room to the stone-tiled entry, kitchen, and Florida Room. Equipped with granite countertops, exquisite cabinetry, and high-quality stainless-steel appliances, the kitchen is ready to handle your culinary pursuits. Across the
